

MEMORABLE . . . EFFECTIVE . . . ENGAGING . . .

ATLEY JONAS

GLOBAL MANAGEMENT AND COMMUNICATION SPECIALIST

Atley Jonas

Takes an approach that is often experiential, based in academic research, but also flexible, entertaining and easily understandable. He is a talented public speaker who believes that listening to a lecture should be just as enjoyable as going to see a play in a theater. Here is what others have to say about Atley Jonas and why he lives up to his personal philosophy:

*Memorable... Effective...
Engaging.*

✧ Atley Jonas, BSc., MBA ✧

Atley Jonas is an accomplished educator and business writer / editor with ten years experience living and working in Japan. Originally from Lethbridge, Alberta, he received a Bachelor of Science in psychology degree from the University of Alberta, and later, a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA), specializing in global management, from Ashford University in Iowa, USA.

With years of experience in adult education, combined with formal business training, Atley Jonas has delivered professional results at colleges and corporate environments alike. He uses his business skills, passions, personal interests, and radical creativity to help develop, carry out and evaluate instructional programs and curricula.

In addition to teaching, Atley Jonas is also a researcher and business writer for a major American educational content and encyclopedic company, having written many articles on global industries, companies, and future business trends.

Currently, Atley Jonas lives in Kofu, Japan, working with students at a vocational school, and a number of business clients in Tokyo. "I always try to inspire my students to understand the rapidly changing dynamics of a global economy and how the impact of globalization affects their own future and that of the companies they work for."

Having had the chance to travel extensively, Atley Jonas is prepared to share his unique perspectives on the roles of language, cross-cultural communication, understanding, and the importance of adopting a "global citizen" mindset.
